EXPLANATION on CANCELLATION

1. Cancellation needs to be done by students at the time of taking admission in the spot round only after they are assured of a seat in the College.
2. Students who could secure an admission in either of the rounds but still wish to take admission in another college or even in the same college under a different programme or major discipline, may also apply for more options in the spot round. It is advised that the students only cancel their already secured admission after confirming with the college of their choice where they get an opportunity in spot round as no restoration will be allowed once the admission is cancelled by the student. Such students can use their exiting login on assamadmission.samarth.ac.in and need not register again
3. Students who have not secure admissions in the first and second round can participate in the spot admission round. All of their applications that were submitted previously shall be considered for spot round as well. If the students want to make any change to their application or apply in more colleges/programme they may either edit their existing applications or apply for more colleges/programmes. Such students can use their exiting login on assamadmission.samarth.ac.in and need not register again
4. Students can apply for six options. In case they have already filled six forms, they may discard any of the application and fill out a new application/form for the college/programme/major of their choice.
